Class Song.

Vincit, qui se Vincit.

Words by Margaret L. Townsend.

Music Adapted by Minnie M. Alger.

To-day is our Commencement,
And we ponder what it means ;
Fancy says it is a door-way,
And beyond it are our dreams ;
But above the open portal,
Wrought in words of light itself,
Is our motto true, " He conquers
Who overcomes himself."

Bright the dawn, and full of promise,
Of this life begun to-day,
But some battles, sure, await us,
Ere the dews have passed away,
And, self-conquered, we shall win them,
For the vict'ry must be ours ;
And the thorns along our pathway,
Will be turned, at eve, to flowers.
